CIO OF THE YEAR AWARD

John Giles, President and CEO of Cutting Edge Solutions / Future POS, was recently honored at an awards ceremony held at the Pittsburgh Fairmont Hotel as one of three finalists for the Pittsburgh CIO (Chief Information Officer) of the Year award.

Giles was recognized in the "Growth Category" for his achievement of taking his software company from a product developed in his basement to the multi-million dollar company that it is today. "I feel honored to have been selected for such a prestigious award and it really means a lot to be recognized in my hometown community."

Giles' Future POS is installed in some of the finest restaurants in the world including Cipriani London, The Ivy, The Fat Duck and The Ritz Carlton. Future POS is also featured in the United States in every imaginable hospitality application, from single terminal installations to 66 terminals in Dayton Arena in Ohio.
