3rd annual Future POS Dealer Conference a Success!

The third annual Future POS Dealer Conference was held at the Mandalay Bay Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada from July 10-12. This year's conference was bigger and better than the two previous years combined! Networking with fellow Future POS dealers and vendors, informative seminars, plus some great food and awards all combined to make a great time for all who attended. Representatives from fifty-two Future POS dealerships attended for a total of 84 dealer members. Twenty-four vendors were also present to showcase their products and explain how they can benefit Future POS dealerships.

Highlights of the Dealer Conference included exciting new details on the newest version of Future POS called Future Fusion, a seminar by Alan Hayman of Hayman Consulting, software demos and business tips from Steve Pritchard of Future POS Ohio, and highlights of some of the valuable Future POS features by top Future POS dealers. Attendees also visited a Future POS Vendor Fair where quality companies such as Mercury Payment Systems, BlueStar, and Posiflex displayed up and coming products.

Several Future POS dealerships were recognized during the dealer conference for their contribution to Future POS over the past year. Awards were given to:
